

Week 1 – Overview of the IELTS test
Day 1 Overview	Day 2 Overview	Day 3 Overview	Day 4 Overview	Day 5 Overview	Day 6 Overview
There are lots of unreliable sources of information about the IELTS test out there which will waste your valuable time. Before you commit yourself to following my study plan for the next 6 weeks, I would advise you to click here so that you're sure you're dealing with a real IELTS expert Activity 1: Find out if you need to do General Training IELTS or Academic IELTS and find out what score you need. The institute that is accepting your IELTS certificate will be able to provide you with this information. Activity 2: Click here for an overview of the IELTS test to make sure you understand what it is and what's expected from you.	Activity 1: Click here to join our free Fundamentals course and complete lesson 1 about the speaking component of the IELTS test.	Activity 1: Click here to continue with lesson 2 of the Fundamentals course to learn about the IELTS listening test.	Activity 1: Click here to continue with lesson 3 of the Fundamentals course to learn about the IELTS reading test.	Activity 1: Click here to continue with lesson 4 of the Fundamentals course to learn about the IELTS Writing Task 1.	Activity 1: Click here to complete the final lesson of the Fundamentals course to learn about the IELTS Writing Task 2.
Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:

Week 2 – Reading
Day 1 Reading	Day 2 Reading	Day 3 Reading	Day 4 Reading	Day 5 Reading	Day 6 Reading
In the IELTS Reading test, the types of questions are the same for General Training and Academic IELTS. However, the types of texts used in the tests are different so you will need to use the appropriate practice tests later this week. Activity 1: Click here to join our IELTS Reading Challenge and complete the first lesson. Activity 2: Click here and go through all the information in relation to the IELTS Reading test and the different question types you can expect to get. You should make notes about anything you'll need to remember so that you can refer to them later when you're doing practice reading tests.	Activity 1: Click here and continue with lesson 2 of our IELTS Reading Challenge. Activity 2: Continue going through the information about the reading test on our website and making notes about everything you need to know.	Activity 1: Click here and finish our IELTS Reading Challenge with lesson 3. Activity 2: Finish going through the information about the reading test on our website. Activity 3: Do a full practice reading test. Closely follow the strategies you've learned from IELTS Advantage to find the answers. Take as much time as you need as you are just learning how to use the strategies for now.	Activity 1: Take the test from yesterday and focus on any incorrect answers you had. Make sure you examine what you did wrong so that you can make notes of these mistakes and avoid repeating them again. It's crucial that you learn from these mistakes or else you won't be able to improve your score. Activity 2: Make a list of the question types that you got wrong or that took you a lot of time to answer and review the strategies for each of these.	Activity 1: Do another full reading test but only use your notes to help you with question types you haven't already answered in the previous test. Take your time again and just focus on finding the correct answers. Activity 2: Once you've finished, check your answers, learn from your mistakes and review the necessary strategies.	Activity 1: Once you start to consistently get the scores you need in practice reading tests, you can start to focus on your time management. Try to recreate exam conditions as best you can. Remember that in the reading test, the answer sheet must also be completed within the one-hour time limit. Activity 2: Continue doing practice reading tests, learning from your mistakes and improving your implementation of the strategies.
Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:

Week 3 – Writing Task 2

Day 1 Writing Task 2	Day 2 Writing Task 2	Day 3 Writing Task 2	Day 4 Writing Task 2	Day 5 Writing Task 2	Day 6 Writing Task 2
IELTS Writing Task 2 is the same for General Training IELTS and Academic IELTS so all students will need to prepare in the same way for this part of the test. Activity 1: Click here to join our 5-Day Challenge and complete lesson 1. Activity 2: Click here to join our Essay Builder and complete lesson 1. Activity 3: Click here to go to our website and start learning all the things you need to know in relation to IELTS Writing Task 2.	Activity 1: Click here to continue with lesson 2 of our 5-Day Challenge. Activity 2: Click here to continue with lesson 2 of the Essay Builder course. Activity 3: Click here and continue to go to our website to ensure you know everything you need to know about this part of the test.	Activity 1: Click here to continue with lesson 3 of our 5-Day Challenge. Activity 2: Click here to continue with lesson 3 of the Essay Builder course. Activity 3: Click here and continue to go to our website to ensure you know everything you need to know about this part of the test.	Activity 1: Click here to continue with lesson 4 of our 5-Day Challenge. Activity 2: Click here to continue with lesson 4 of the Essay Builder course. Activity 3: Click here and continue to go to our website to ensure you know everything you need to know about this part of the test.	Activity 1: Click here to complete the final lesson of our 5-Day Challenge. Activity 2: Click here to continue with lesson 5 of the Essay Builder course. Activity 3: Start to practice writing complete Task 2 essays. You can click here and then use the questions at the top of the provided sample answers and then compare what you've written with the Band 9 responses.	Activity 1: Click here to complete the final lesson of our Essay Builder course. Activity 2: Get your writing evaluated by an IELTS expert to find out where you're going wrong and what weaknesses you have. By learning what these things are, you'll be able to improve your scores to the level you require. If you don't have access to an IELTS expert, we can offer you our support through our writing correction service which you can learn more about here.
Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:

Week 4 - Speaking

Day 1 Speaking	Day 2 Speaking	Day 3 Speaking	Day 4 Speaking	Day 5 Speaking	Day 6 Speaking
IELTS Speaking is the same for General Training IELTS and Academic IELTS so all students will need to prepare in the same way for this part of the test. Activity 1: To help you understand the four areas that are assessed in the IELTS speaking test, you will need to read this article. Activity 2: Click here to get an overall understanding of what you'll need to do for this part of the test.	Activity 1: It's important that you understand what you're weaknesses are and start working on these straight away. Click on these links to learn how to do improve the areas you need to work on: fluency, vocabulary, grammar and pronunciation. Activity 2: Click here and go through all the information in relation to the IELTS speaking test and the different question types you can expect to get. You should make notes about anything you'll need to remember so that you can refer to them later when you're practicing.	Activity 1: Continue going through the information about the speaking test on our website and making notes about everything you need to know.	Activity 1: Finish going through the information about the speaking test on our website. Activity 2: Now you'll need to put what you've learned into practice. To do this effectively, you need to start speaking out loud as your speaking score won't improve if you study in silence. Click here to learn how you can do this.	Activity 1: There is only so much improvement you can make by yourself and you will eventually need the guidance of an IELTS expert to help you identify what mistakes you're making and what improvements you need to make. If you don't have access to an IELTS expert, we can offer you our support through our mock speaking test service which you can learn more about here.	Activity 1: Continue to work on the weaknesses you learned about yesterday until you've made the necessary improvements required to get the score you need.
Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:

Week 5 – Writing Task 1
Day 1 Writing Task 1	Day 2 Writing Task 1	Day 3 Writing Task 1	Day 4 Writing Task 1	Day 5 Writing Task 1	Day 6 Writing Task 1
IELTS Writing Task 1 is different for General Training IELTS and Academic IELTS so you will need to make sure that you're studying the right materials. General Training students need to write a letter and Academic students need to write an essay describing information in a chart, process or map. Activity 1: If you're a General Training student, click here and scroll down to where it says 'General Training Lessons' and start learning all the things you need to know in relation to IELTS Writing Task 1. If you're an Academic student, click here to go to our website and start learning all the things you need to know in relation to IELTS Writing Task 1.	Activity 1: Continue to go through our website to ensure you know everything you need to know about this part of the test. This will take longer if you're an Academic student as there is more for you to learn.	Activity 1: Finish going through our website.	Activity 1: Start to practice writing Task 1 answers. It's okay if it takes you longer than you'd expected at the beginning as you are just learning how to implement everything that you've learned so far this week. Take your time and focus on writing answers to the standard required to get the scores you need. Once you're able to do this, you can start to focus on writing under exam conditions.	Activity 1: Get your writing evaluated by an IELTS expert to find out where you're going wrong and what weaknesses you have. By learning what these things are, you'll be able to improve your scores to the level you require. If you don't have access to an IELTS expert, we can offer you our support through our writing correction service which you can learn more about here.	Activity 1: Continue to work on the weaknesses you learned about yesterday until you've made the necessary improvements required to get the score you need.
Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:

Week 6 - Listening
Day 1 Listening	Day 2 Listening	Day 3 Listening	Day 4 Listening	Day 5 Listening	Day 6 Listening
The IELTS Listening test is the same for General Training IELTS and Academic IELTS so all students will need to prepare in the same way for this part of the test. Activity 1: Click here and go through all the information in relation to the IELTS Listening test and the different question types you can expect to get. You should make notes about anything you'll need to remember so that you can refer to them later when you're doing practice reading tests.	Activity 1: Continue going through the information about the listening test on our website and making notes about everything you need to know.	Activity 1: Finish going through the information about the listening test on our website. Activity 3: Do a full practice listening test. Closely follow the strategies you've learned from IELTS Advantage to find the answers. Take as much time as you need and pause the audio if necessary as you are just learning how to use the strategies for now.	Activity 1: Take the test from yesterday and focus on any incorrect answers you had. Make sure you examine what you did wrong so that you can make notes of these mistakes and avoid repeating them again. It's crucial that you learn from these mistakes or else you won't be able to improve your score. Activity 2: Make a list of the question types that you got wrong or that took you a lot of time to answer and review the strategies for each of these.	Activity 1: Do another full listening test but only use your notes to help you with question types you haven't already answered in the previous test. Take your time again and just focus on finding the correct answers. Activity 2: Once you've finished, check your answers, learn from your mistakes and review the necessary strategies.	Activity 1: Once you start to consistently get the scores you need in practice listening tests, you can start to focus on your time management. Try to recreate exam conditions as best you can. Remember that in the listening test, you get 10 minutes after the end of the audio to fill out the answer sheet. Activity 2: Continue doing practice listening tests, learning from your mistakes and improving your implementation of the strategies until you're consistently getting the scores you need in the real test.
Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	Notes:	★★★★★★★★ If you're pleased with the improvements you've made but require further support, check out the range of courses we have available here. ★★★★★★★★